STUDENT EXPECTATIONS

life and ministry groups

Students should normally recognise their local church as their primary centre of care & support. It is expected that students with a 75% of full-time load or more join a life and ministry group. Students with a half-time load are eligible to participate in a group if there is a vacancy.

chapel

It is expected that all theological students undertaking morning classes on campus attend Ridley Chapel daily and take part in a Chapel or music team.

expectations

Ridley expects their students to:

- Profess Christian faith.
- Follow a lifestyle that expresses Christian and Biblical values and standards.
- Be regular members of a Christian church.
- Adhere to the standards of the churches (and other agencies) in which they worship and with whom they may serve in the future (e.g. the "Faithfulness in Service" document for those considering Anglican ordination).
- Be willing to be challenged in their Christian commitment, and to be trained for good ministry.
- Agree to take part in community life at Ridley, including taking part in Chapel, the social and pastoral life of Ridley, respecting the rights of others, respecting Ridley staff, faculty, equipment and property, and not engaging in any kind of harassment.
- To disclose any criminal record.
- To agree that they will not bring alcohol or non-medicinal drugs onto the campus.
- Pay all fees and other costs on time.
- Not engage in behaviour that would cause offence to our Christian supporters.
- Attend at least 80% of lectures and seminars in each unit, and meet assessment requirements.
- Maintain a satisfactory standard of diligence and academic progress.
- Not interfere with other students on the campus.
- Agree to pay for any damage caused to or loss of Ridley property.

Ridley College reserves the right to vary these expectations in individual cases.

Please consider the above rules and expectations carefully.
Each student accepted to Ridley College signs a student acceptance form agreeing to meet the above expectations.
