There are a number of critical elements which combine together to make the Ridley Annual Preachers’ Conference unique.

Workshops
Each workshop runs for three sessions. You enrol for one workshop for the whole conference so that you can spend quality time developing a particular skill. There are limited places for each workshop. We will confirm which workshop you are enrolled in and any preparation required for participation in the workshop.

New Preachers
Anthea McCall
This foundational workshop is for first time participants at the Preachers’ Conference. The workshop provides training in the fundamentals of preparing and delivering a biblical exposition for those who are new to expository preaching. If you have been preaching for less than 2 years and have not previously participated in a new Preachers’ workshop, please enrol in this workshop. Anthea is on the Ridley faculty and is part of Merri Creek Anglican, a church plant in Clifton Hill.

Imagine That!
Preaching Evangelistically to Youth
Graham Stanton
Alongside jargon-free vocabulary and up-to-date pop-culture references, we’ll work on connecting with adolescent identity formation by adding some imagination to how we preach the gospel with young people. Graham was previously Principal of Youthworks College in Sydney. He is currently Lecturer in Practical Theology at Ridley College.

Preaching Evangelistically Amidst Horror
Scott Harrower
Amidst the confusion of the multiple terror attacks in Paris in November 2015, President Hollande described the situation as a horror: “C’est une horreur”. What is God’s relationship to these horrors? How about smaller (and sadly common) horrors, such as interpersonal conflict, or profound existential pain. This workshop will look at what Mathew’s Gospel has to say to Australians today about horror. Scott is Lecturer in Christian Thought at Ridley College.

Preachers Masterclass
Rory Shiner
This masterclass workshop provides an opportunity for those who have been regularly preaching for at least 10 years. In the master class you will meet in a small group of 10 and present a sermon in outline to the group for improvement and mutual learning.

Sermons Under Construction
Rod Morris
This is the workshop for those needing to do preparation whilst away at the conference. Bring your work in progress, touch base briefly with others at the start of the sessions to hear what we are working on, and then use most of the workshop time to work on your sermon. Rod is the Senior Minister of St Stephens Greythorn and member of the Preachers’ Conference Committee.

Master of Arts at the Annual Preachers’ Conference
Ridley College offers a Master of Arts (Theology or Ministry) through our MA Gold program. The theology and ministry streams are held in the Yarra Valley each June and feature leading international and local scholars. - Fees include shared superior accommodation. There is a surcharge for single accommodation.
- FEE-HELP is available for tuition fees.
- You can select subjects from across all three streams of the MA Program.
