

YOUTH MINISTRY SUPPORT PACKAGE application form

name: _____ student number: _____

year: _____ semester : one two

The Youth Ministry Support Package covers a two or three-year agreement, reviewed every six months. The goal of the support package is to help local churches establish new and sustainable ministries among teenagers. Applications are means tested in relation to church income, and preference is given but not exclusively restricted to parishes in the Anglican Diocese of Melbourne and the Province of Victoria.

PREREQUISITES:

Applicants must satisfy the following selection criteria.

- > Enrolment in an accredited course of study with Ridley College following a recommended youth ministry study pathway
- > Evidence of academic ability (in current course for current students)
- > Engaged in a recognised ministry placement for at least 10 hours a week

CONDITIONS OF RECEIPT

- > Beneficiaries (students and placement churches) must be willing to be involved in promotional activities for the support package.
- > If successful, payment will be made to the recipient or funds will be applied to outstanding tuition balance following the census date in the relevant semester.
- > Recipients of a support package must advise the Registrar of any changes in their enrolment status subsequent to being awarded a package. Recipients who withdraw from study during the semester following the award will be expected to return the funds.
- > Recipients of a support package must advise the Director of the Centre for Children’s and Youth Ministry of any changes in their ministry placement arrangements subsequent to being awarded a package.
- > Funds available for the youth ministry support package are limited, and are awarded when available on the basis of this application form and the decision of the Scholarships Committee (Principal, Vice Principal, Chief Financial Officer, Registrar) and the Director of the Centre for Children’s and Youth Ministry.
