

Children's and Youth Ministry Worker Position— Anglican Parish of Christ Church Dingley

Christ Church Dingley is a parish in the Evangelical-Pentecostal tradition, we are seeking a person for a 20 hr per week paid role partnering with church parents and the church community to mentor and disciple the children and youth of the congregation. The main responsibility is to run an effective Sunday morning Primary Age, weekly family program and a youth program.

This entails the choice of curriculum and training and mentoring of our young leadership team. Theological qualifications and experience preferable. There is scope for the role to grow. Please contact Rev. Richard Loh for details – 0481 158 059 or pastor@ccd.org.au

For more information about Christ Church Dingley please visit the website www.ccd.org.au

Children's and Youth Minister – Summary Role Description

In consultation with the Senior Pastor, to establish a Bible based and educationally based approach and curriculum for use with Children's Church and with the Youth, considering the age range and stages of development of the participants.

To coordinate and roster the Children's Church and Youth team volunteers to present this program.

To conduct children' volunteer team meetings for training, communication, and encouragement.

To be well acquainted with Child Safe and health and safety requirements and ensure compliance in the running of the program.

To build rapport with and liaise with parents of the children and youth.

To regularly pray for and with the children, youth, and leadership team.

To plan and prepare with the support of the leadership, intergenerational services, and special events.

To attend Parish Council and to present monthly ministry report.

To present an annual report to the Parish AGM.

You will be required to have clearances from the Diocese of Melbourne before commencing this role.