Job Title: Young Adult Engagement Coordinator

Reporting to: Chief Executive Officer

Contract: Part time (15 hours per week) - Salary Level 4 Miscellaneous Award ($29.64ph)

Start Date: As soon as possible / Negotiable

Location: Based in Melbourne - Remote / Home Office

The Organisation: Langham Partnership is a global fellowship working in pursuit of the vision God entrusted to its founder, John Stott, to strengthen the growth of the church in maturity and Christlikeness through raising the standards of biblical preaching and teaching.

Three distinct but integrated ministries, Langham Preaching, Langham Literature, and Langham Scholars, serve strategically together to train and provide resources to preachers, leaders, and scholars, all towards helping Christians understand and apply the Scriptures and grow in Christlikeness.

Job Purpose: The primary responsibilities of the Young Adult Engagement Coordinator are to engage with and develop a supporter base for Langham Partnership Australia with young people (18-30), in order to ensure ongoing sustainability for the organisation.

Job Description: As the Young Adult Engagement Coordinator, you will establish and build relationships with Bible colleges, university Christian groups and churches in order to promote engagement with Langham Partnership. This may involve formal presentations at colleges, University Christian groups, promoting at conferences and churches, coordinating events as well as managing youth – specific communications through a variety of media. You will encourage young people to connect with Langham Partnership through a range of creative strategies, with a view to a long term relationship with the organisation.

You will be expected to fundraise within this target group. Some administrative duties will also be required, including managing relevant input and reporting from the database.

Accountability: The Young Adult Engagement Coordinator reports directly to the CEO (based in Adelaide), however you will also be expected to work closely with the Admin and Supporter Relations Coordinator based in Springwood NSW.

Langham Partnership Statement of Faith

Langham Partnership is committed to the fundamental truths of historic biblical Christianity, in accordance with which we affirm:

There is one, eternal God, Creator and Lord of the universe who, in the unity of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, both governs all things according to God's will and is accomplishing God's purpose in the world and in the church.

The Holy Scripture in its entirety is inspired by God's Spirit through human authors and constitutes the revelation of God's truth to humanity. It is wholly true and trustworthy in all that it affirms. Whatever the Bible, rightly interpreted, is found to teach, we are bound to believe and obey. It is our supreme authority in every matter of belief and conduct.

All human beings are created in God's own likeness and therefore have inherent value and equality before God. Human sin and guilt since the fall have rendered us subject to God's wrath and condemnation and have resulted in our alienation from God's life, suppression of God's truth and hostility to God's law. God's love desires all to come to repentance and to be reconciled rather than condemned.

Salvation from the guilt, penalty and all other consequences of sin has been achieved solely through the work of Jesus Christ – his perfect obedience, substitutionary death, bodily resurrection and exaltation as Lord. Jesus alone is truly God and truly human, the only mediator between God and humanity. There is salvation through no other person, creed, process or power. Each sinner is justified before God and reconciled to God only by divine grace appropriated by faith alone.

The work of the Holy Spirit is necessary for the individual's new birth and growth to maturity. The Holy Spirit empowers and indwells the church, enabling its constant renewal in truth, wisdom, faith, holiness, love, ministry, power and mission.

There is one, holy, universal and apostolic church, which is the Body of Christ, and to which all true believers belong. The church's calling is to worship God forever and to serve God in the world.

As the Father sent the Son into the world, so the Lord Jesus Christ sends his church to participate in God's mission by words and works. The church is called: to make Christ known; to proclaim God's truth and the gospel of God's grace; to make disciples among all nations; to exhibit God's character through compassionate care for the needy; to demonstrate the reality of God's kingdom through creative and sacrificial living, the community of love, the quest for righteousness, justice and peace, and the care of God's creation.

As the Lord Jesus ascended to his Father, so he will return personally, visibly and in glory. He will raise the dead and bring salvation and judgment to final completion. God will then fully establish his Kingdom and finish the new creation – a new heaven and a new earth from which all evil and evildoers, all suffering and death, will be excluded and in which God will be glorified forever.
